

395-7387BC

1912Dates J-BK

Constitution War against Sports

395-386 BC

Corinthian War

Conflict between Corinth, Athens, Thebes, and Argos on one side and Sparta on the other, 395-386 BC

395 BC

1912 Dates J-BK

CORINTH, Greece

Its commercial interests were seriously affected by the development of Athenian power, causing the city to be active in promoting the Peloponnesian War. Becoming jealous of SPARTAN rule, after the fall of Athens, Corinth formed an alliance with Athens and Thebes which resulted in the

Centurian War 395 BC
Agrippa Crassus returned to the Spartoi Alliance supporting that city in the War with the Thebans under Epaminondas

395 BC → 387 BC

THE CORINTHIAN WAR

The Tyranny of Sparta over her conquered cities and allies precipitated the war. Sparta needed help in her expedition to Asia Minor, but it was not given. Boeotians resisted.

AEOLIA LAOS when he was about to start for Asia.

Argos, Corinth, Thebes, Athens all fought against Sparta. Friends were reproduced in the Court House in Albany, New York

C395BC
450-385BC

1912 Dates J-BK

44 titles of plays, comedies by ARISTOPHANES (about 450-385BC) including 11 which have come down to us.

"The ARCHARNIANS", "The Knights"
"The Clouds" "The Wasps" "Peace"
"The Birds" and "The Frogs"